Investment Opportunities

Charleston Women in International Trade (CWIT) would like to invite your company to raise its profile by investing in our organization, one of our region's most respected international trade groups. Through sponsorship, CWIT is able to meet its goals to educate, train, mentor and network our workforce, and to help attract the best and the brightest young talent to our industry. In return, your donation will be met with promotion to more than 600 international trade contacts and a presence on our website at www.cwitsc.org.

More specifically, your investment will provide advertising exposure and event tickets to attend CIWT's April 10th banquet, and programming support for:

- ✓ Four scholarships for South Carolina students pursuing degrees in international trade or related studies
- ✓ Woman-of-the-Year (WOTY) Award for a highly respected female, South Carolina resident whose career achievements and/or volunteerism has enhanced the status of women in international trade
- ✓ Tuition funding for candidate training at the College of Charleston for preparation of the Certified Global Business Professional (CGBP) credential examination
- ✓ April's dinner banquet celebration of mission, WOTY, scholars, members, friends, and the 16-member board of volunteers
- ✓ Monthly professional development and networking luncheon and evening events
- ✓ CWIT/College of Charleston mentor program connecting students and professionals
